

Terms of Use for Exams on Your own Device (en)

Zur deutschen Version wechseln

The general terms of use for the respective exam rooms are binding and must be followed. Additionally, the following applies to exams:

Regulations

- The Safe Exam Browser (SEB) must be installed and tested in advance on the device you wish to take the exam with.
- You are responsible for the functionality of the device and software.
- You must bring the device with you to the exam.
- It is strictly prohibited to use the SEB within a virtual machine.
- The exam supervisors may grant additional time, provided there are no problems caused by the candidate.
- Violations of these rules or the terms of use for the respective exam rooms may be considered an attempt to cheat and could result in subsequent exclusion from the exam.

Scope of Application

- These terms of use apply only during the exam.
- These terms of use begin with the start of the exam and end when you leave the exam.
- The terms of use are individually agreed upon for the respective exam.

Basic Provisions In addition to the general terms of use, the following terms apply to exams on your own device:

- The general terms of use for the exam room
- The terms of use for the software being used, specifically:
 - Moodle
 - Safe Exam Browser
